

We are excited to share that our centre is continuing to partner with the Early Childhood Development Association to implement the Pyramid Model!

The Pyramid Model is a tiered framework for supporting the social and emotional development of children through classroom implementation and sharing resources with families. Our observations have shown strong improvements through consistent and intentional practices.

Benefits of the Pyramid Model

CHILDREN:

- Develop and maintain relationships.
- Identify and manage emotions.
- Develop self-control and coping strategies.
- Understand routines and transitions.

FAMILIES:

- Promotes supportive and positive relationships with children.
- Provides resources and tips to navigate challenging behaviors at home.
- Helps build partnerships between families and educators to support capacity in preventing and addressing challenging behaviours.

EDUCATORS:

- Training and Resources to support families.
- Enhance skills to navigate challenging behaviors.
- Strengthening positive and supportive relationships.
- Mentoring for learning and implementing new strategies.
